Persephone's life sucks. She has no powers, and she spends her days dodging giants and cleaning the slaughterhouse at her mother's farm. Even worse, her cousin Artemis is spreading rumors that she's actually a mortal, and she's starting to believe them. When a catastrophic event on Mortal Earth threatens the gods and humanity, Persephone is charged with a seemingly impossible task: save the world. In the process, she commits an unspeakable crime, falls in love, and makes a dark deal with Hades, writ in her own blood.

Will Persephone find her powers and her destiny? Or will she die defeated and alone?
