Ayurveda y filosofía (Spanish Edition) Fabián Ciarlotti

La base y expresión de todo el proceso mental es el pensamiento. Del pensamiento derivará toda nuestra vida, es decir, nuestra palabra, nuestra dirección, nuestra acción. El problema es que esta acción nos ha llevado a una desconexión dramática con la naturaleza: nuestra vida sobre el cemento y el plástico; nuestro aire, suelo y agua enrarecidos; nuestros alimentos carentes de vitalidad, transgénicos, llenos de pesticidas, hormonas, colorantes, aditivos, conservantes, edulcorantes sintéticos; la pobreza; las armas nucleares... Todo parece indicar que el colapso de la forma de vida que tenemos es inevitable.

Los avances tecnológicos son maravillosos, pero la sociedad moderna ha perdido contacto con la tierra, prescindiendo y olvidando la vida natural. Como me dijo un maestro allá en la India: “El hombre sólo se ocupa de transformar la materia en energía; la naturaleza se encarga de compensarlo”.

Sobre todo esto vamos a hablar a lo largo del libro; vamos a filosofar un poco (que no es más que contar un cuento) y tratar de ir desde las partes al todo y del todo a las partes, para provocar a nuestros pensamientos y elevar sus vibraciones con la colaboración del Ayurveda, la milenaria medicina hindú que, cada día, está más cerca de nuestro enfermo mundo occidental.
