Exceeding the Standards Margaret Moustafa

You don't need to give up what you know about best practice to address your state's standards! Margaret Moustafa shows you how you can not only meet but exceed the standards by aligning your state standards with such research-proven best practices as the read aloud, shared and guided reading and writing, reading and writing workshop, literature circles, directed reading and thinking activity, language experience, and reader's theater. Each instructional strategy benefits children at specific stages of their development in reading and writing - beginning, early, advanced early, and independent. Additionally, each strategy follows an easy-to-use format beginning with a quick overview of the practice, followed by the purpose of the practice, the materials you need, step-by-step procedures for teaching and assessing, potential mistakes to avoid, the research that informs the practice, instructional links, and follow-up reading. Moustafa carefully aligns the best practice to teach each standard requirement across a K-5 spectrum.

Tyler Cote:

As a student exactly feel bored for you to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library or even make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's spirit or real their leisure activity. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring along with can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this Exceeding the Standards can make you feel more interested to read.
