Quebrado has been traded from pirate ship to ship in the Caribbean Sea for as long as he can remember. The sailors he toils under call him el quebrado-half islander, half outsider, a broken one. Now the pirate captain Bernardino de Talavera uses Quebrado as a translator to help navigate the worlds and words between his mother's Taíno Indian language and his father's Spanish.

But when a hurricane sinks the ship and most of its crew, it is Quebrado who escapes to safety. He learns how to live on land again, among people who treat him well. And it is he who must decide the fate of his former captors. Latino interest.

As a university student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or even make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's soul or real their passion. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring along with can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country.
