For Samantha, being a stunt double was always more interesting than being an actress, and she thought being a bodyguard would be the next best thing. One day she gets assigned to guard the CEO of LaRocca foods, Dominick LaRocca, who's suffered constant harassment from women ever since his picture was plastered on the label of his company's pasta sauce without his consent. Seeing this as an opportunity to move up in her line of work, Samantha decides to offer her services to be his personal bodyguard, and she finds herself posing as Dominick's girlfriend! Long ago Samantha learned that falling for gorgeous men can be trouble. But can she really keep her heart shielded from Dominick and rebuff his advances?
