From Book 1:

At the stroke of midnight...

One minute Grace Lancaster is an overworked event manager organising 2013's New Year's Eve ball... The next she's kissing a rather gorgeous man at the Regency themed party. Everyone's entitled to an out-of-character New Year's kiss, right? Except Jasper Mossman, Earl of Bingham, isn't at a costume party - he's a real-life gentleman from 1813...

And, it seems, kissing a man in Regency London has consequences!

What Grace considers normal behaviour scandalises Regency society and so far she's provided the irrepressible gossips of the ton with a season's worth of conversation! In a scramble to protect her reputation, as well as his own, Jasper insists that they marry for the sake of her honour. Marrying Mr Darcy might be a 21st century girl's dream – but the reality is far from romantic. Corsets are uncomfortable, no running water is disastrous! Grace had always planned on falling in love before she got married, but when Jasper takes her in his arms she just might believe she's finally found her very own Prince Charming.
