Because revenge is a dish made sweeter by a little Christmas cheer...Nine months ago, Darby's in-laws stole the most important thing in the world to her — her unborn baby. Whether it means destroying her mother-in-law or taking down Gareth, the husband who helped betray her, Darby vows to get her baby back. Gareth has spent the past nine months in a containment unit, held prisoner by the very people who claimed to love him. As the snow begins to fall, he makes his move, only to find the wife he'd feared lost to him forever blocking his path. Darby and Gareth quickly discover that there's no passion quite like that of two soul mates reunited. And now they'll risk everything to reclaim their lives — for the chance to wake up on Christmas morning together, as a family.
