Una novela para adultos que leerás como un niño. Un canto a la amistad que deja huella y cambia la visión del mundo

«Entonces lo descubrió: le estaba mirando. Olvidó gritar, escapar o cerrar la boca, abierta por la sorpresa. No pudo apartar los ojos de su visión...»

Así comienza la aventura más extraordinaria que un niño y un animal han vivido nunca. Una historia de valentía y amistad en la que Pedro, un niño que vive en un entorno dramático y solitario, se encuentra a un elefante en la ribera del río. Tratando de huir de la realidad de los adultos que tanta infelicidad le causa, Pedro decide ocultar su descubrimiento para conservarlo como amigo. Pero un elefante es un secreto difícil de esconder...

Luis Cerezo escribe un vertiginoso relato en el que un niño afronta una huida del dominio de los adultos y su universo controlado. Una fábula contemporánea que, desde el contraste entre la mezquindad y la ternura, entre la sinrazón y la amistad, entre la cruda realidad y la magia, cambia la forma de ver el mundo.

Un libro excepcional que vas a querer regalar a todas las personas a las que amas.
