Chelsea wants to escape her horrific past and she has little choice before her but to head West in search of a better life. With painful memories of her past and bleak hopes for the future, she embarks on a journey towards Montana to meet her future husband.

David is looking for a wife to manage his home and help him with the ranch work. When he sees Chelsea, he wonders if she would be able to face the harsh life of the West. But Chelsea is determined to prove him wrong. She works hard alongside her husband and before long, falls in love with the gentle and kind man. David too loves his wife madly..... until he finds out that she's carrying a babe that is not his!
