Practical Stuff for Pastors: Leading Change

A helpful handbook for pastors about all the stuff they didn't learn in seminary.

Ever tried replacing the organ with a keyboard? Shifting the service time by 30 minutes? Introducing a new ministry? Retiring an old one? Pastors often encounter resistance when suggesting change. But as new vision arises and communities evolve, change isn't just important, it's essential.

Leading Change provides practical help for leading change in your church. You'll discover...

When to change—and when to leave well enough alone

How to communicate vision—so you bring people along with you

How to respond to resistance—and navigate the tough stuff
