Astricia - Or The Man Who Dribbled Time Cristovam Buarque

Astricia is a book for intelligent people who love to read, for the simple pleasure of reading. Vaguely inspired in Borges and Cortazar, strange and enigmatic as a David Lynch movie, Cristovam Buarque tells with art and suspense the story of Astor, a multifaceted character, who might have been murdered but could also have committed a crime. Everything happens in the imaginary world of Astricia, an universe of mirrors, labyrinths, and enigmas where one never knows what is fantasy and what is real, what exists and what it does not exist, what is and what isn't. Cristovam Buarque, a mix of educator, writer, economist and public man, will provoke polemics, once more, with this book absolutely different from everything he published up to now.
