El pianista siciliano (Umbriel thriller) (Spanish Edition) Alfio Caruso

"Hoy en día esos tipos se encuentran sólo en los libros, en las películas, en los documentales de la tele, pero yo los he conocido del primero al último, he comido con ellos y con ellos he bromeado, los he tenido delante de mi piano, a todos, en fila."

Nacido en la paupérrima Sicilia de principios del siglo XIX, Guglielmo pronto descubre que tiene un talento especial: puede reproducir en un piano cualquier melodía con sólo escucharla una vez. Convertido en el pianista de moda, el joven Guglielmo crece rodeado de mujeres exuberantes y hombres peligrosos. Hasta que un día, después de participar involuntariamente en el asesinato de un jefe rival, la Cosa Nostra lo manda a los Estados Unidos como si fuera "un envío postal".

Allí se convertirá en el pianista de la Mafia, tocando para Don Siegel, Lucky Luciano, Frank Costello, Joe Bonanno, Vito Genovese y otros gánstgers legendarios que controlan gran parte del tráfico económico y las intrigas políticas de la región. Mientras se adapta a su nueva situación de inmigrante, será testigo privilegiado del lado sórdido de la Mafia, de sus pequeñas miserias y sus sangrientos ajustes de cuentas, aunque también tendrá tiempo para codearse con glorias de la música como Duke Ellington, y hasta de tomarle una prueba de canto a un joven de ojos azules llamado Frank Sinatra...

Con una pluma exuberante y nostálgica, el célebre escritor siciliano Alfio Caruso nos narra, en esta primera parte, la llegada de Guglielmo a los Estados Unidos, los violentos hechos de sangre que provocarán su traslado de Chicago a la gran ciudad de Nueva York, y los extraños pactos entre la Mafia y el gobierno norteamericano con motivo de la segunda guerra mundial. El pianista siciliano es la historia tragicómica y conmovedora de un hombre que le puso la banda sonora a un período clave de la historia reciente de la Mafia.
