No Heaven, No Hell J.T. Brindle

Virginia is the living image of her great-grandmother. She has the same presence, the same outstanding beauty. But behind her smile lies a terrible secret.

One by one her family die - first her grandmother, then her aunt, then her father. Only her loving sister Lianne is spared.

It seems that Virginia has inherited not only her great-grandmother's name and looks, but also the unspeakable evil that took her to the grave...
