The Love that Remains: An encounter with my Father Up There Gianpaola Tedeschi

Gianpaola, returning back home from work by car, have had a frontal accident with a bus. She was taken to the hospital, has been in coma, and stayed there for a week. In those days, she lived an extraordinary experience which she calls “her Miracle”: she met again her Father, who passed away 10 years before. She had dialogues with him about the motive of that choice, the consequences incurred by that action, and also about the sense of existence and being here in this world.

Writing this book, she wanted to share some of her other experiences, as well, which she believes to be somehow a source of comfort and hope.
