Kate and Paul Hanlon are settling into their new life in Copper Mill, but when the people of Faith Briar Church gather for the first time in their newly rebuilt sanctuary, Kate notices something missing. She begins working on a surprise for the church, but her plan is derailed when she learns about Patricia Harris, a widow whose daughter Marissa is suffering from leukemia. Kate tries to show Patricia God's mercy, but soon discovers that this grieving woman harbors a terrible secret, and getting to the truth just may save the life of her child. Kate sets off on a journey across Tennessee in search of clues, but will she find the answer to everyone's prayers before it's too late? As she seeks God's wisdom, Kate begins to recognize that grace is all around us
