The Day All Hell Broke Loose Clarence Jackson

This book chronicles the life and times of Chauncey Evansworth Pennington, a small town preacher who catches hell from the moment he steps foot on North Florida soil to take over a down trodden country church. CHAR(13) + CHAR(10) He has a beautiful wife and a lovely daughter. And his life was a picture of perfection until the day that "All Hell Broke Loose." That day brought his haunting past back to vivid remembrance and his present scared the life out of him. You'll have to read the book to find out what his future holds. CHAR(13) + CHAR(10) Chauncey Pennington is only a figment of my imagination, but his life and the people and circumstances surrounding it, represents the complexities of a life and how fragile it can be when we're presented with unbearable circumstances. CHAR(13) + CHAR(10) This book is humorous at times and sorrowful at others, But the real purpose of this book is to provoke serious considerations about how we treat others, how we react to others' treatment of us, and the value of allowing everything that happens to us in life to work out for our good in life.
